FOR SALE

STAND-ALONE BANK BUILDING WITH DRIVE-THRU LANES IN BUSY SHOPPING CENTER

1 Carmichael Street, Essex Junction, VT

The front of the building is a large open lobby area with two private offices and a conference room directly off the lobby. In addition, there is a two fixture bathroom for customers off the lobby. There are four teller's windows separating the lobby from the employee work area. The work area provides access to the drive up window tubes. Off the work area, on the southeast corner of the building is an employee kitchen area. It has a tile floor with wood cabinets along one wall, a sink and lockers for the employees. The second bathroom is located next to the kitchen. The southwest corner of the building contains two storage closets and a utility room. The utility room contains the boiler, controls for the radiant heating system, and the main electrical panel. Attached to the back of the building is a 30' x 30' canopy that covers the three drive through lanes. The lane closest to the building is an ATM and night deposit box. The other two lanes use underground tubes from the customer's car to the interior. Association dues are $578.00/mo and 2020 property taxes were $11,766.78.

Vermont Real Estate Commission Mandatory Consumer Disclosure

[This document is not a contract.]

This disclosure must be given to a consumer at the first reasonable opportunity and before discussing confidential information; entering into a brokerage service agreement; or showing a property.

RIGHT NOW YOU ARE NOT A CLIENT

The real estate agent you have contacted is not obligated to keep information you share confidential. You should not reveal any confidential information that could harm your bargaining position.

Vermont law requires all real estate agents to perform basic duties when dealing with a buyer or seller who is not a client. All real estate agents shall:

- Disclose all material facts known to the agent about a property;
- Treat both the buyer and seller honestly and not knowingly give false or misleading information;
- Account for all money and property received from or on behalf of a buyer or seller; and
- Comply with all state and federal laws related to the practice of real estate.

You May Become a Client

You may become a client by entering into a written brokerage service agreement with a real estate brokerage firm. Clients receive the full services of an agent, including:

- · Confidentiality, including of bargaining information;
- · Promotion of the client's best interests within the limits of the law;
- Advice and counsel; and
- Assistance in negotiations.

You are not required to hire a brokerage firm for the purchase or sale of Vermont real estate. You may represent yourself.

If you engage a brokerage firm, you are responsible for compensating the firm according to the terms of your brokerage service agreement.

Before you hire a brokerage firm, ask for an explanation of the firm's compensation and conflict of interest policies.

Brokerage Firms May Offer NON-DESIGNATED AGENCY or DESIGNATED AGENCY

- Non-designated agency brokerage firms owe a duty of loyalty to a client, which is shared by all agents of the firm. No member of the firm may represent a buyer or seller whose interests conflict with yours.
- Designated agency brokerage firms appoint a particular agent(s) who owe a duty of loyalty to a client. Your designated agent(s) must keep your confidences and act always according to your interests and lawful instructions; however, other agents of the firm may represent a buyer or seller whose interests conflict with yours.
