AMAZING INVESTMENT/REDEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

Additional Property Information

Constructed with durable concrete block and steel framing, the building provides exceptional structural integrity and functionality. The flexible interior layout accommodates office, showroom, retail, storage, and operational uses, while the rear garage space offers vehicle access for loading and unloading. The large above grade footprint coupled with 9 foot ceilings in the basement of the main building, leaves plenty of room for storage.

Positioned on a highly visible North Street location with easy access to downtown Burlington, the waterfront, and major transportation routes, this property presents a unique opportunity for businesses seeking a centrally located facility with a strong operational foundation.

Owner financing is available for qualified buyers, creating an attractive acquisition opportunity with flexible purchase terms.

Property Highlights:

- 7,568 SF of finished above-grade space
- Established location of Gordon Stamp & Engraving
- Concrete block and steel construction
- Owner financing available
- Ideal owner-user or redevelopment opportunity

Vermont Real Estate Commission Mandatory Consumer Disclosure

[This document is not a contract.]

This disclosure must be given to a consumer at the first reasonable opportunity and before discussing confidential information; entering into a brokerage service agreement; or showing a property.

RIGHT NOW YOU ARE NOT A CLIENT

The real estate agent you have contacted is not obligated to keep information you share confidential. You should not reveal any confidential information that could harm your bargaining position.

Vermont law requires all real estate agents to perform basic duties when dealing with a buyer or seller who is not a client. All real estate agents shall:

- Disclose all material facts known to the agent about a property;
- Treat both the buyer and seller honestly and not knowingly give false or misleading information;
- Account for all money and property received from or on behalf of a buyer or seller; and
- Comply with all state and federal laws related to the practice of real estate.

You May Become a Client

You may become a client by entering into a written brokerage service agreement with a real estate brokerage firm. Clients receive the full services of an agent, including:

- Confidentiality, including of bargaining information;
- Promotion of the client's best interests within the limits of the law;
- Advice and counsel; and
- Assistance in negotiations.

You are not required to hire a brokerage firm for the purchase or sale of Vermont real estate. You may represent yourself.

If you engage a brokerage firm, you are responsible for compensating the firm according to the terms of your brokerage service agreement.

Before you hire a brokerage firm, ask for an explanation of the firm's compensation and conflict of interest policies.

Brokerage Firms May Offer NON-DESIGNATED AGENCY or DESIGNATED AGENCY

- Non-designated agency brokerage firms owe a duty of loyalty to a client, which is shared by all agents of the firm. No member of the firm may represent a buyer or seller whose interests conflict with yours.
- Designated agency brokerage firms appoint a particular agent(s) who owe a duty of loyalty to a client. Your designated agent(s) must keep your confidences and act always according to your interests and lawful instructions; however, other agents of the firm may represent a buyer or seller whose interests conflict with yours.
